"BURLEY" FOOTBALLS have been made in W.A. for 50 years

BURLEY FOOTBALLS were used in the Interstate matches, Victoria v. W.A. and South Australia v. W.A. Also used in the Essendon v. W.A. matches. This proves BURLEY superiority.

The Controversy...

The staging of the Olympic contests in Melbourne provided a welcome shot in the arm for Australian sport from which all branches should stand to gain.

Unfortunately, because Australian rules football wasn't included in the international competitions at the Games, this sport hasn't received the publicity that has been given some other branches of athletics. No one has offered to provide new football grounds comparable to the proposed Olympic Pool; and in the suggested sports centre at Lake Claremont hockey got the mention.

Good luck to these sports. They need all the support and facilities they can get. But so do we, and we should examine any suggestion of increased sporting fields.

Lately Burswood Island has been mentioned as an area that could be made available for a big Regional Sports Centre; and if all those sporting organisations which are cramped for room will unite to investigate the possibilities of this site, the money and labour for its development may be found.

The Lord Mayor has said that it would cost only about £50,000 to raise the level of Burswood Island high enough to provide sporting fields on that 300-odd acres. The Tree Society says trees could be grown there to provide shade and wind breaks.

Three hundred acres in such a central position would be a wonderful start for a Regional Sports Centre. Then there is all that marshy land along the river from Rivervale to the causeway; it must be reclaimed some day, and it will make playing fields at least comparable to those on Langley Park.

Existing traffic facilities to Burswood, road and rail, are adequate for the race meetings which are held during the winter at Belmont Park racecourse, on the island. They could easily be increased to provide for the needs of a sports centre.

Looks as though with a little agitation and co-operation we could do something in this direction.

DAILY NEWS BEATEN -HELLENIC IMPRESS

By J. COOPER

Last year's runners-up Daily News were given a shock by Hellenic in last Sunday week's match at Raphael Park. Hellenic won 11.23 to 11.20.

Only in the last five minutes of play did Hellenic take the lead after the score had alternated for 20 minutes.

After a first half when there was more fumbling than good football Hellenics, through the agency of their roving division, were able to level the scores. Daily News 5.9, Hellenic 4.14.

SLUGGISH

After the long interval both sides played good football and although kicking improved, ball handling was poor.

Daily News looked a little sluggish and behind in condition. With more training they look for better things.

Moore, playing on a half forward flank was always elusive.

In the forward division, Tarante and Ayres played well, as did Coffey when roving.

Hellenic in this quarter played good football. Marinko in the pivot position and Nicholas leading well were able to keep in touch. Daily News 7.17, Hellenic 6.17.

IMPROVEMENT

This was the quarter. Daily News raced away to a three goal lead when Tarante and Leitch scored.

Then Hellenic took charge and with their rucks and rovers playing confidently passed Daily News' score. It was point for point for a few minutes then Hellenics swooped again through Haldoupas and Kailis, racing away to an eleven point lead.

Daily News came again and scored through Smith. It was all Daily's now and Ned Bull nearly brought it off with a 50 yarder that hit the post, they came again only to score points and finally Hellenic 11.23, Daily News 11.20.

Footballer Of The Year....

J. Watts of Daily News and N. Gelavis of Hellenic last Sunday week won the first three-points award in The Review Footballer of the Year £20 contest.

The £20 will be won by the player leading on points at the end of the qualifying rounds.

Points will be awarded to each team on a 3-2-1 basis.

Last Sunday week only one match was played and the points awarded to N. Gelavis (3), T. Bellos (2), and D. Marinko (1), Hellenic; J. Watts (3), N. Bull (2), and D. Wheelan (1), Daily News.

Gelavis, Hellenic's star rover, made most of the opportunities that came his way and while resting on a half forward flank was always dangerous.

Watts gave an exhibition in the ruck and throwdowns, pounding the ball away and capped a brilliant game with 3 goals.

T. Bellos at halfback and D. Marinko, both played well enough to suggest better things to come.

HELLENICS FOR MELBOURNE

On June 30 a party of 40 players and members will depart for Melbourne to play the Olympic Football Club in a enclosed ground near Melbourne.

The Olympic Club is a team which plays in the Sunday League Football Association in Melbourne.

This is one step forward as far as The League is concerned and with a proposed combined trip to the Goldfields in August of this year, it seems certain to have a great season.

For Daily News the other point scorers Ned Bull as a rover and D. Wheelan as fullback were near perfection. Bull's last kick hit the post from 50 yards out.

NEWS FROM THE CLUBS

PRESIDENT RETIRES

Mr. Trevor McLean of Maylands club who has been President of this club for a number of years did not seek re-election this season.

Trevor stated that family reasons had prevented him from further participation. Hope to see him at the games now and then.

FORMER STATE PLAYER TO COACH METROPOLITAN

Metropolitan's new coach, Noah (Dixie) Lee, former Claremont and State ruckman brings a wealth of talent and experience into the club.

Last year Dixie successfully coached Donnybrook from the bottom of the South-West League ladder to the grand final.

John Ballucci from Maylands was married last Saturday and we wish him and his "Better Half" every happiness.

RECORD

Darryle Walsh who was elected a life member of Metropolitan club in 1955 must surely hold the record for league games. Since he started playing over seven years ago Darryle has notched up 130 games.

Can any member in your team beat it?

NEW OFFICIALS

Maylands elected new office bearers and the final count resulted in Rocky Clarke being voted in as President; Peter Davis as Secretary-Treasurer and Colin Walker as Assistant Secretary.

Metropolitans are set for what should be their best season ever. With new coach Dixie Lee and new faces in the line up and several of their old stalwarts to rely upon they're hopeful of again occupying the throne.

Cheering Daily News at Raphael Park last Sunday week were Mrs. L. Dillon, Victoria Park; Miss K. Wenlock, Floreat Park; Mrs. J. Baker, East Guildford; Miss Patsy Radcliffe, Subiaco and Mrs. R. Coffey and son Gregory of Victoria Park.

Paying Dividends

The Hellenic Football Club's idea of insuring its players against loss of time at work through injury is certainly paying dividends.

Playing in the scratch game against Scarborough on Sunday, April 7, Peter Passaris of Vincent Street, Leederville, received a broken arm. He was taken to Royal Perth Hospital where he was admitted and afterwards allowed home.

This season Hellenic players will be insured for £12 a week, medical expenses of £25 and £1,000 death benefit.

NEWS FROM THE CLUBS

Times change, so do football teams. Of Metropolitan's original team in 1955 only six members are still playing this season. They are D. Walsh (130 games), C. Nairn, D. Catherall, P. Christie, J. Scott and G. Hammer-sley.

Members of all Clubs are reminded that club membership badges are available from club officials.

It's A Dull World — Or Is It?

Could be the import restrictions; could be the Middle East Crisis; could be the parking problem, the atom bomb, rock-n-roll, or just plain laziness. But giving everybody the benefit of what little doubt there is we've decided it was a blend of forgetfulness and procrastination that caused so many clubs to omit sending in their teams list and club notes.

We're not so worried about the notes. We realise that some clubs have a pretty dull time, that in the world in which they move nothing ever happens that's worth recording. Of course, if anything ever does occur which you think might be of interest to other members of this League; or if you have any views on how Sunday Football can be improved or brightened; or if you have anything worthwhile to say on these or kindred subjects, then by all means send them in. We'll welcome small news items—in fact, we badly need them—and if suitable we'll print them. But we'll understand your silence if your team or your members never do anything worth speaking about.

But those teams lists are a car of a different make. We need them—or at least our, and your, supporters do. Notice some of last year's lists in this issue? If there's any criticism it will come from the barrackers of the clubs who omitted to send in this year's list, and we hope it will be directed to the right quarters. We've done our best. We've used the latest list supplied to us and we'll continue to do just that.

O.K. You've got the ball. Now it's up to you.

● NEWS FROM THE CLUBS

Spectators certainly welcomed the cool drink bar Daily News ran at Raphael Park. Many thanks are due to Mrs. Smith and Mrs. Green, the very efficient organisers.

Alan Shaw, ex-president of Scarborough club, is ill in hospital. We wish him a speedy recovery and hope he'll soon be back barracking for his team.

"They can't do it again?" That's what they said last year and the year before. On April 28 Scarborough put their title of undefeated champs on the line and aim to pick it up again at the end of the season. With seven teams flat out to stop them, some good football should emerge.

Scarborough welcomes all the other teams back to a season of football which should be good, clean, hard and close. The best of luck to all and may the best team win.

Pauline Johnson of Main Street, Osborne Park looked attractive in yellow cotton skirt and black top when cheering Hellenic to victory.

Two one-eyed supporters for Daily News were Mrs. O. D. Green of Subiaco and Mrs. E. Kimble of Shenton Park.

Three sisters who made an attractive picture were Misses Kay, Rosalie and Maria Papal of Canning Highway, South Perth. Three supporters worth having Hellenic!

Ideal weather and keen football saw Mr. and Mrs. T. Bellos and their two children Sandra and Timothy at Raphael Park last Sunday week.

OUR READERS CAN ALSO HELP . . .

The editor would appreciate the co-operation of players and officials by the supplying of social items for inclusion in the journal. We would welcome items of interest being left with your club notes or sent to your editor before 4 p.m. on Wednesday of each week. We cannot guarantee that all items will be published, but every endeavour would be made to give the best possible coverage.

Thanking you all in anticipation of your co-operation. J.C.

THANKS . . .

The Executive Committee and all clubs wish to thank the previous Editor and Accountant of the Review for the sterling work they have put into it in past seasons.

Smartly dressed was Mrs. Anthony Zempilas of Lake Street, Perth and sister-in-law Miss Despaz Zempilas of Highbury Street, Floreat Park. Both were with a party of Hellenic supporters.
